

The Great Neck Circle was “Great Neck’s own picture-news magazine,” covering local personalities, activities, business, culture, trends, and art in and around Great Neck. It existed in the early 1950’s, from its first issue, October 1950, to its last, probably Fall 1952. The Great Neck Library owns most issues of Great Neck Circle, which are indexed below by subject. Articles cited here can be looked at by appointment with a reference librarian at the Library’s Main Building. Copies of Great Neck Circle articles can be duplicated/emailed upon request.
