The library programs have been well received and well attended. The staff contract has been negotiated and ratified, which was the high point of the past year. We are also looking forward to the renovations of the Parkville and Station branches this year. A space planner has been hired to work with us on this and we are very excited to get started.*

Those in attendance were presented Certificates of Appreciation which read as follows: In appreciation of your diligent and dedicated service to the Great Neck Library, your leadership role in the community, your integrity, and your professional manner.

PRESENTATION TO RETIRING MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

On behalf of the Board, President Schaufeld thanked Marietta DiCamillo and Michael Fuller for their contributions to the Board of Trustees. Those in attendance were presented Certificates of Appreciation which read as follows: In appreciation of your diligent and dedicated service to the Great Neck Library, your leadership role in the community, your integrity, and your professional manner.

Resigned Board of Trustees Member, Francine Ferrante Krupski, was not in attendance but was thanked and acknowledged.

President Schaufeld then read the following statement aloud:

The departure of Marietta, Michael and Francine, represents a major change to this Board. They have individually and collectively been a driving force for the betterment of the Great Neck Library. They will be missed and will leave a void which will be felt for some time as we move forward. The renovated Main Library will serve for years to come as a reminder of their many accomplishments.

Working with and learning from them has been an experience I will not forget. No problem was insurmountable. There was always respect and cooperation. During the past three years, there were numerous debates, but conflict always lead to compromise and amicable solutions.

I will miss Francine's wisdom gained from her years as a school principal. She always spoke her mind and was true to her opinions.

Fuller, you always found a way to lighten the atmosphere when discussions became too serious. Under your committee leadership, each branch has developed a unique personality and has flourished.

Marietta, I will miss you most of all. We owe you so much. As the former president, outgoing treasurer, chair of finance and personnel committees, you insured that everything was done properly. You made the welfare of the library, its staff and patrons your highest priority. You are the memory, heart and conscience of the library.

We appreciate how devoted you all have been to our continued success.

Finally, I am delighted to welcome Denise Corcoran, as our new director. Denise will begin with a new board and together we hope to do wonderful things at the Great Neck Library.

Marietta DiCamillo then read the following statement aloud:

I would like to give this board a round of applause for what we have managed to do over the last four years. We made a building and it's a beautiful building. I would also like to thank Tracy, Holly and Steve who with the three of you this board has been able to accomplish a great deal.

Denise (Corcoran) I am so delighted that you have decided to join our library. I know that under your direction the library is going to take off. I have all the newsletters from 1984 through current and I am giving them all to you. Looking through the newsletters brought back a lot of memories. I remember staff who made and continue to make this library great. Some are no longer here... they have retired, resigned or passed away. Harriett Fargnoli, Jonathan Aubrey and Ruth Klement come immediately to mind.

I don't regret the hundreds of hours spent making this library the best there is (or at least attempting to) by striving to get the Main library renovated, improving programming and getting better computerization. I have and continue to love this library.

In closing I quote Laura Bush - "I have found that the most valuable thing in my wallet is my library card."

Respectfully submitted,

Michael Fuller
Secretary, Board of Trustees
