Introducing...

Wowbrary is a service that provides free weekly emails and RSS feeds (a format for delivering regularly changing web content) about the Library's most recent acquisitions. This is a great way to view the abundance of new books, DVDs, and CDs that the Library has in its Collection. In this way, the Library shelves are brought to you.

Library patrons can sign up for Wowbrary at www.wowbrary.org. Enter the zip code 11023 and choose the Great Neck Library. You will be asked to enter your email address and verify it. There will be no spam or unsolicited mail from Wowbrary. The only email you will receive is a weekly update of new arrivals which will arrive in your e-mailbox on Saturdays. You will be able to request items from the Wowbrary display by clicking the “borrow” button. You then will be taken back to our catalog where the request can be made.

Sign up for Wowbrary and participate in this wonderful new service. Please let us know how you like it and if you need any assistance!

We’re now connected to...

The Great Neck Library is now a member of the LILINK Consortium, which is composed of public libraries in Nassau and Suffolk Counties. The purpose of LILINK is to facilitate resource sharing among 107 Long Island public libraries. As a result, the amount of material available to Great Neck patrons has dramatically increased. Your Library now has access to the collections (including media) of all Nassau and Suffolk public libraries.

Great Neck Library patrons will now have many more materials accessible to them than our Library can ever hope to offer, and often traditional interloan can be a lengthy process. Requests made through LILINK are quick and generated by you, the patron.

The Library welcomes questions on how to use the service of LILINK, and is looking forward to helping our patrons understand the process. Visit any of our branches, or call us at 516-466-8055.

CHECK OUT WHAT’S GOING ON @ YOUR LIBRARY!

For the Great Neck Library’s Sunday opening on September 20, 2015, Snoopy and MetLife visited the Station Branch for the American Library Association’s Library Card Sign-Up Month. Snoopy, the honorary chair for 2015, had a fantastic time meeting fans of all ages. He helped patrons at the Circulation and Reference Desks, and saw his classic adventures with Charlie Brown and the Peanuts gang on display. The Library would like to thank Blue Ocean Wealth Solutions, an office of MetLife, and Snoopy for stopping by!

Later that week on September 26, 2015, OverDrive’s Digital Bookmobile came to the Great Neck Parkwood Pool! Librarians and OverDrive’s staff assisted patrons on learning how to use and download eBooks onto their smartphones, tablets, and other devices in a hands-on and interactive environment. The Library would like to thank OverDrive and the A/V Department for their help! Also a special thanks to the Great Neck School District and Board for providing access to the Parkwood upper lot for this special community event.

The Library also participated in its first year of International Games Day on Saturday, November 21, 2015! International Games Day is an event sponsored by the American Library Association to promote play for all ages with a variety of video games, card games, and board games. Activities ranged from classics such as Monopoly and Scrabble, to new games on our Nintendo Wii U, and even a gift card raffle to GameStop. The Library would like to thank everyone for participating this year, as well as the Levels Teen Center for their help.
Naming opportunities are available to honor or memorialize friends and relatives. Why not leave a legacy in your own community!

For more information, please contact the Library Business Manager, Neil Zitofsky, at 516-466-8055, ext. 229, or send an e-mail to fundraising@greatnecklibrary.org.

Donations in any amount are appreciated.

Pay Your Fines Online with ECommerce

ECommerce is an online payment system that allows you to pay your fines and bills in excess of $3 via the Library’s online catalog. You simply log into your library account by entering your name and library card number. Click the link to your Unpaid Fines and Bills and follow the instructions.

When you have completed your transaction, a receipt will be mailed to you. To print the receipt, right-click on the receipt and click Print. In order to see the change in the amount you owe, exit from your library account and log back in.

You can use ECommerce from the Library’s public computers or any computer with an Internet connection. Ecommerce is designed for use by you, the patron, without staff intervention; however, staff will be available to assist you by phone or in person during Library hours.

Visa, MasterCard and Discover credit cards are accepted, and debit cards must display the logo for either MasterCard or Visa. Please call the Circulation Department at 466-8055, ext. 203 with any questions.

LILIA!
SOLO PERFORMANCE
WRITTEN AND PERFORMED BY LIBBY SKALA

SUNDAY, MARCH 20 at 2:00 pm
Libby Skala has charmed audiences internationally with her critically-acclaimed solo play Lilia, about her Oscar-nominated actress grandmother Lilia Skala. The indomitable Lilia comes to life in her grand-daughter’s deeply personal celebration of life in the theatre. Buoyed by a resolute faith, the Austrian stage actress flees the Third Reich and finds herself laboring in a New York zipper factory before working her way back to Broadway and the silver screen - eventually to collect Oscar, Emmy and Golden Globe award nominations. Registration begins Monday, February 22 at 10 am by calling 466-8055, ext. 277 or register online at www.greatnecklibrary.org. Please arrive early as seating is very limited. A special thank you to the Atria for hosting various Library programs while the Main Building is closed for renovation.
