Levels is for teens 7th grade and up* — teens decide our events and projects, and create projects they want to see happen! If you’re a teen, you can come to a weekend event or daily workshop, do some gaming on our laptops and iPads, or just hang out with friends, do homework, etc. We also do several fully-staged theatre productions a year, traditionally directed, produced, designed and performed by teens, an original internet sketch comedy show written and performed by students, music recording, and more! And our adult staff of experienced working artists (in areas that include theatre, music, video, visual art and more) can show you how to create almost anything you could imagine creating!

* Starting June 1 of every year, 6th graders entering 7th grade in the fall are eligible!

Levelspalooza AND Our 13th Annual Film Festival

We’re ending our summer with two events in one day, SATURDAY, AUGUST 18! First up is the 2018 edition of LEVELSPALOOZA, our annual outdoor music and arts festival (check the August Levels newsletter and website to find out where it’s happening this year)! Hear live music, comedy, poetry readings and more by the talented teens of Great Neck (and if you’re a teen who wants to be a part of it, CONTACT US ASAP!). Then, when the sun goes down, we switch gears to THE 13th ANNUAL LEVELS FILM FESTIVAL, featuring original films from comedy, to horror, to music videos, animation and more, all created by teenagers (and again, if you’re a teen with a film, CONTACT US ASAP!). Join us for some truly amazing artistry starting at 5:00 p.m.!

Levels will present THE DROWSY CHAPERONE THURSDAY, FRIDAY & SATURDAY, AUGUST 9, 10 and 11 at 8:00 p.m. This Broadway hit, with book by Bob Martin & Don McKellar, and songs by Lisa Lambert & Greg Morrison, is a hilarious tribute to the insanity of old-fashioned musicals and the people who love them!

We begin the evening in the apartment of a truly obsessed musical theatre fan, who insists on playing us the record of his favorite musical — the (fictional) 1928 hit The Drowsy Chaperone. The show comes to life around him as he wryly comments on the music, story, and actors. The wacky play-within-a-play features two lovers on the eve of their wedding, a bumbling best man, a desperate theatrical producer, a not-so-bright hostess who plays the ukulele, two gangsters posing as pastry chefs, a skunk-haired Casanova, an intoxicated chaperone, and a daring aviatrix in an airplane bound for Rio De Janeiro. Winner of five Tony Awards including Best Book and Best Original Score, The Drowsy Chaperone has captivated audiences around the world! Our production will be directed by North High student and Levels veteran Elaine Zhang, and will feature our usual all-teenage cast and production staff.

Admission is FREE and open to the public. Tickets are intended to guarantee seating as space is limited, and can be requested at the Circulation Desks of all Great Neck Library facilities beginning Monday, July 23. For more information, contact Levels at (516) 466-8055 ext. 216 or email levels@greatnecklibrary.org.
American Sign Language (ASL) 101!
TUESDAYS, JULY 10 to 31, & AUGUST 7 from 6:30 to 7:30 pm at the Station Branch
Learn the basics of American Sign Language as a living and unique language. Learn vocabulary and grammar for basic conversations. For students with no or minimal signing skills.

Finding Your Creative Spark with Young Adult Author Lindsay Champion
WEDNESDAY, JULY 11 from 7:00 to 8:00 pm at the Main Library, Large Multipurpose Room
Join Lindsay as she talks about her debut young adult novel Someday, Somewhere, and chats with teens about how to tap into your creative energy and find your voice. Teens who participate in the event may win a copy of the book to be signed by Lindsay!

Babysitting 101!
MONDAY, JULY 23 from 6:30 to 8:30 pm at the Station Branch
Interested in becoming a babysitter? Already responsible for children but not sure how to engage them? Considering studying early childhood education? Join us for a workshop on tips and tricks for starting or refreshing your babysitting skills. Activities will include learning how to engage children in literacy activities and projects, as well as how to market your skills as a babysitter.

2018 Teen Summer Reading Program!
for teens in grades 6 through 12 as of September 2018

Summer Community Service
WEDNESDAYS, AUGUST 1 to 29 from 7:00 to 8:00 pm at the Main Library, Study Room
Volunteer this summer and make a difference for local community organizations. Earn community service credits by participating in craft and writing projects for a variety of interests and abilities. Come as often as or as little as you’d like. No registration needed. By participating, you’ll be able to complete an activity for the Teen Summer Reading Program!

SAT Boot Camp
SATURDAY & SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29 & 30 from 1:30 to 4:30 pm at the Main Library, Large Multipurpose Room
Are you a teen who is getting ready to take the SAT in October or later in the school year? Join a test prep expert as you review all four sections of the SAT over the course of the weekend.

Register for teen programs online, in person, or by phone at 516-466-8055, ext. 218. Teens and parents register with their own library cards.
