Copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the reproduction of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these conditions is that the reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a patron uses a reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," the patron may be liable for copyright infringement. The Library reserves the right to refuse an application for reproduction of an image if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the request would involve violation of copyright law.

Applicant acknowledges that the image may not be utilized for any purpose other than as specifically set forth above. Applicant undertakes to use all reasonable precautions to ensure that the image is not further reproduced without the written authorization of the Great Neck Library.

I HAVE READ THE ABOVE INFORMATION AND AGREE TO THE CONDITIONS.
