Michael Hartnett: Memorable Buildings and Streetscapes of New York
THURSDAY, JANUARY 7 at 7:00 - 8:30 pm
Meeting ID: 839 5178 0580
Passcode: 472326

Michael Hartnett has spent much of his life wandering New York City streets and staring up at its buildings. Over the past five years, he did so with greater intensity during the writing of his two latest novels The Blue Rat and Blue Gowanus. In this program, he will discuss the best and the worst of his discoveries about the city’s streetscapes and architecture. He will share images of New York’s more intriguing visual elements, stories from his own writing and from the city’s history, and finally his opinions, which he hopes will inspire lively responses and civilized disagreements.

Esther Amini: Concealed
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18 at 1:00 - 2:30 pm
Meeting ID: 812 0510 0990
Passcode: 227467

Esther Amini’s memoir draws us into the life of a Jewish/Iranian daughter caught between two worlds: Iran and America. Her memoir highlights her longing to separate herself from her father's watchful eye and her mother’s eccentric ways of soaking up the American culture. Concealed speaks not only to Iranians and their first-generation American children, but to every immigrant and descendant who feels the poignant and complicated push-pull of legacy. The universal themes of family and loyalty, honoring traditional customs vs. breaking the mold, fighting oppression and yearning for hope all bear witness to Esther trying to understand it and then struggling with what to keep and what to discard.

PRESENTATIONS

A Visit to The Barnes Foundation
presented by Vivian Gordon
TUESDAY, JANUARY 12
at 2:00 - 3:30 pm
Meeting ID: 846 6226 6168
Passcode: 318394
This illustrated talk will show highlights from the daring, and very personal, art collection assembled by Dr. Albert C. Barnes in the first half of the last century. The Barnes Foundation, now moved from the suburbs to a more accessible location in downtown Philadelphia, displays masterpieces by Monet, Renoir, Cezanne, Matisse, and Picasso together with Old Master paintings and works by important American artists. Vivian Gordon has taught at Columbia and the City University of New York, and was a lecturer for many years at The Metropolitan Museum of Art giving gallery talks, tours, and writing audio guide scripts.

But They Were Good to Their Mothers: The Story of the New York Mob presented by Howard Ehrlich and Harvey Sackowitz
TUESDAY, JANUARY 19
at 2:00 - 3:30 pm
Meeting ID: 830 2928 0453
Passcode: 445225
They had names such as “Lepke” Buchalter, Arthur “Dutch” Schultz, Meyer “the mob accountant” Lansky, Abe “Kid Twist,” Benjamin “Bugsy” Siegel, Frank “the Prime Minister” Costello, Carl “the Godfather Gambino,” “Lucky” Luciano, and Albert “the Executioner” Anastasia. This is the story of the Jewish and Italian mobs. They had much in common, but their families always came first. Why did they team up? What happened to them? This is their story told by Howard Ehrlich and Harvey Sackowitz.

Carl Reiner and Mel Brooks: The Grandmasters of American Comedy presented by Brian Rose
TUESDAY, JANUARY 26
at 2:00 - 3:30 pm
Meeting ID: 837 0270 6307
Passcode: 794219
For more than seven decades, Carl Reiner and Mel Brooks made America laugh—either through their remarkable solo careers or their legendary partnership. Whether together or apart, they were giants of American comedy, who basically conquered every field they entered, whether television, movies, Broadway, or records. This presentation will examine their extraordinary achievements, beginning with their work together on Sid Caesar’s Your Show of Shows and their creation of the 2000 Year Old Man, to their individual accomplishments as writers, directors, and performers.

Misty Copeland and Roberto Bolle: A Dual Biography presented by Marilyn Carminio
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 2
at 2:00 - 3:30 pm
Meeting ID: 893 9416 6264
Passcode: 256379
Through hard work & determination, Misty Copeland became a household name dancing her way into the hearts of the American people. Internationally recognized for her consummate artistry, she is the first African-American to become a principal dancer at American Ballet Theater.

Roberto Bolle, a cultural icon in his native Italy, is internationally acknowledged as one of the greatest male dancers of our time. In addition to his classical & contemporary performances in prestigious ballet theaters, he appears in historic amphitheaters making dance more popular in Italy than opera. This presentation will include video of their individual performances & their work together at Milan’s La Scala.

Postwar American Presidents
presented by Martin H. Levinson
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 9
at 2:00 - 3:30 pm
Meeting ID: 816 6985 2117
Passcode: 802256
There have been twelve American presidents since WWII—six Democrats and six Republicans. Join Historian Martin H. Levinson, who will talk about each of those presidents and what can be learned from their tenure in office. Martin H. Levinson has written and lectured extensively on topics of historical interest.

Coney Island: Art of an American Dreamland
presented by Vivian Gordon
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16
at 2:00 - 3:30 pm
Meeting ID: 837 5464 7569
Passcode: 68262
Coney Island evolved from a resort for the wealthy to a novel playground during everyone to come to relax and escape from propriety. Since the 1860s, it has been a source of inspiration for many artists. This talk will include works by such well-known American painters as Reginald Marsh, Milton Avery and Red Grooms, and the photographers Walker Evans and Diane Arbus.

Frank Lloyd Wright presented by Emily Kies Folpe
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 23
at 2:00 - 3:30 pm
Meeting ID: 836 7150 6310
Passcode: 546651
Frank Lloyd Wright has captured the American imagination like no other architect. During the seven decades of his career, he designed homes, schools, office towers, houses of worship, and public buildings that continue to influence architects and delight occupants. We'll start with Wright’s early residential work, the so-called Prairie Houses around Chicago, and then consider other major projects: Fallingwater in Western Pennsylvania; the Imperial Hotel in Tokyo (demolished 1968); Taliesin West, Wright’s home and school in Arizona, and the Guggenheim Museum in New York. Emily Kies Folpe served as Museum Educator at the Museum of Modern Art, and taught at Sarah Lawrence College and other area institutions.

Programs are held live on Zoom unless specified. Download the app on your device or go to zoom.us/join and enter the meeting ID and passcode. You can also dial in at 1 (664) 558-8656 or find your local number at zoom.us/zoomconference. Open to all; no registration or Zoom account required!
