TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 9 at 1:00 - 3:00 pm
Meeting ID: 875 9412 6562 Passcode: 310616
Sonia Delaunay arrived in Paris by 1906 and soon became known for her dynamic abstract paintings filled with intense color. She created books, theater and interior designs, textiles and many striking fashions during her long and prolific career.

Vietnam, 45 Years after the Fall of Saigon presented by Sheila Taub
WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10 at 12:00 - 2:00 pm
Meeting ID: 865 4528 9995 Passcode: 686264
Vietnam has become a popular tourist destination. Prices are very reasonable. Explore the markets and see how they transport people and items by motor bike, their most popular mode of transportation. View the small fishing boats they still use. See the beautiful Buddhist temples as well as the colonial French architecture. Discover the beauty of Halong Bay. Note the construction taking place. See how they view the American War.

Understanding Gerrymandering, the Census and What They Mean presented by James Coll
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 16 at 1:00 - 3:00 pm
Meeting ID: 898 4458 1916 Passcode: 841877
Article I of the US Constitution mandates that an “actual enumeration” be conducted every ten years to determine the number of people living in the United States. In this discussion, we will analyze the history of the census, the provisions for the process and the way the counting is used after it is conducted. Our analysis will also include the way states are carved into districts and how that process has both changed and remained the same over the history of our republic.

The Iconic Barbra Streisand presented by Marc Courtade
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 30 at 1:00 - 2:30 pm
Meeting ID: 948 7743 6137 Passcode: 830229
One of the most commercially and critically successful entertainers in modern entertainment history and the best-selling female recording artist of all time, Barbra Streisand has reached iconic status. A Brooklyn native, she has accomplished every goal she set for herself in the entertainment industry. This presentation will discuss her extraordinary career and her life.

Female Secret Agents during WWII presented by Patricia DelGiorno
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 7 at 1:00 - 2:30 pm
Meeting ID: 862 7979 7972 Passcode: 822685
During World War II, women secret agents of the British Special Operations Executive (SOE) infiltrated Nazi-occupied France and worked with the French Resistance in disrupting and destroying vital enemy operations in the lead-up to the Allied invasion of the continent. This presentation also deals with the sacrifices and contributions the women and their French colleagues made to hasten the end of the war. Program includes film clips.
