

Kathleen Gold, Vice President

Kathy has been a longtime resident of Great Neck and values the importance of community service and giving back to the community she loves. She has always cherished the Great Neck Library as it is the cornerstone of our town and serves as a great mechanism for boosting literacy for all ages. She is grateful to the Great Neck Library director and staff for always pursuing excellence in all the programs & services they provide. Kathy is a graduate from JFK Elementary School, Great Neck North Middle & High School and received her Bachelor's in Social Studies Education from New York University and her Master's in Special Education from Hunter College. She has taught as a Special Education Teacher with the NYC DOE for 13 years, is an Executive Function Coach with Beyond Booksmart and now teaches at a private Jewish high school in Queens. She serves on the Academic Board at North Shore Hebrew Academy; she co-chairs the parenting lecture series at North Shore Hebrew Academy; she is the education coordinator at Meorot; and previously sat on the Executive Board member of the Young Israel of Great Neck. Kathy has been on the Great Neck Library Board since 2021 and is currently Board Secretary.
